

1912-016 Chancery Causes: Lizzie Robinson vs. Lizzie M. Ball &
Lee Co.

Orr

CA Debt
T-Property

To the Honorable H. A. W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County, Virginia.

Humbly complainaing your oratrix, Lizzie Robinson, would respectfully represent and show unto your Honor that Lizzie M. Ball is indebted to your orator in the sum of $30.00 for board for three months in the year 1911, that the said Lizzie M. Ball came to the house of your oratrix and contracted to pay your oratrix for her board at the rate of $10.00 per month and that the said Lizzie M. Ball obtained board and lodging from your oratrix for the period of three months for which she, the said Lizzie M. Ball, owes your oratrix said sum of money.

Your oratrix would further represent and show unto your Honor that the said Lizzie M. Ball is a resident of the State of Missouri, that she has property and debts and money due to her in Lee County, Virginia, that there is in the hands of James W. Orr, her attorney, the sum of $100.00 and that the said Lizzie M. Ball is removing and intends to remove said funds out of the State and that if your oratrix is left with the ordinary process of law, the same will be unavailing to her in the collection of her said debt as aforesaid.

The object, therefore, of this bill is to attach said funds in the hands of said James W. Orr so as to secure the payment of the said debt as aforesaid.

The prayer, therefore, of your oratrix is that the said Lizzie M. Ball and James W. Orr be made parties defendant to this bill of complaint, that an order of publication be made against the said Lizzie M. Ball, that she be required to answer the said bill; that the said James W. Orr answer how much money is in his hands for the said Lizzie M. Ball, that upon a hearing a judgment be rendered upon the said attachment Requiring the said James W. Orr to pay over enough of the money in his hands to satisfy the said debt and the costs of this suit. And may all other, further and general relief be granted your oratrix that the nature of her cause and good conscience requires. And she will ever pray &c.

Lizzie Robinson P.q.

Virginia, Lee County, to-wit:

I, J.D.Edds, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Lee County, do hereby certify that Robt.L.Pennington, Agent and Attorney for Lizzie Robinson, the plaintiff in the foregoing bill of complaint, this day made oath before me that the statements made in the foregoing bill are true to the best of his knowledge and belief; that the plaintiff is entitled to and ought to recover against the said Lizzie M. Ball the sum of $30.00, with interest thereon from the 27th day of April, 1912, until paid, at least, together with the costs of this suit, that the said Lizzie M. Ball is a resident of the State of Missouri and has estate and debts and money belonging to her in the County of Lee and is sued with a co-defendant residing in the said County; that the said Lizzie M. Ball is removing, has removed, and is intending to remove her estate out of the State so that process of execution will be unavailing, and only the ordinary process of law to be used in securing judgment upon the claim of the plaintiff.

Given under my hand this the 18th day of May, 1912.
